Select the access level you would like everyone to have.

Click "... " to open "File Explorer" to pick the document you want to upload.

The screenshot shows a web application window titled "Add New" with a close button (X) in the top right corner. The form contains the following fields and controls:

- * Category: A dropdown menu with "Other" selected.
- Subcategory: An empty dropdown menu.
- * Document Type: An empty dropdown menu.
- Description: A text input field containing the word "Document".
- * Upload File: A file selection area with a blue button and a small square button containing "...". This button is circled in orange.

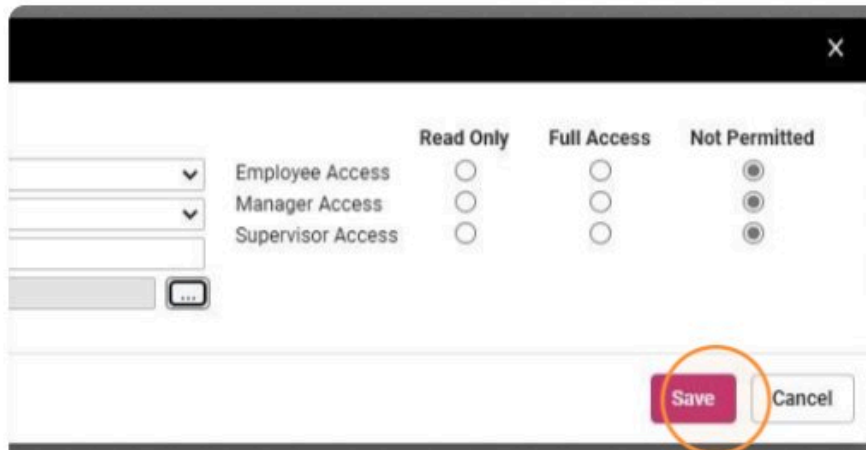

To the right of the form fields is a table for permissions:
